At any time after the Issuer becomes eligible to file a registration statement on Form S-3, subject to specified limitations set forth in the Investors’ Rights Agreement, the holders of Registrable Securities may demand in writing that the Issuer register on Form S-3 all or a portion of the Registrable Securities, so long as the total amount of Registrable Securities to be registered have an aggregate offering price of at least $5 million (net of selling expenses). The Issuer is not obligated to file a Form S-3 pursuant to this provision on more than four occasions, and the Issuer is not obligated to file a registration statement pursuant to this provision within 30 days before or 90 days after the effective date of any other registration statement that the Issuer may file or if the Issuer determines in good faith that it would be seriously detrimental to the Issuer’s stockholders.

Incidental Registration Rights

If the Issuer proposes to file a registration statement under the Securities Act, other than pursuant to the demand registration rights described above, the holders of Registrable Securities will be entitled to notice of such registration and, subject to specified exceptions, including market conditions, have the right to require the Issuer to register all or a portion of the Registrable Securities held by them.

Expenses of Registration

Subject to certain limitations, the Issuer will pay all registration expenses, including registration and filing fees, exchange listing fees, printing expenses and accounting fees and the fees and expenses of one counsel to represent the selling stockholders, in addition to any underwriting discounts and commissions that are related to any demand or incidental registration described above.

Indemnification

The Investors’ Rights Agreement contains customary cross-indemnification provisions, pursuant to which the Issuer is obligated to indemnify the selling stockholders in the event of material misstatements or omissions in the registration statement attributable to the Issuer, and the selling stockholders are obligated to indemnify the Issuer for material misstatements or omissions in the registration statement attributable to them.
